....Death of the Francis Marion....??

On November 14, 1988, the Francis Marion Hotel was sold at auction apparently to the bank which held its mortgage. It is still in operation, but how long is "problematic", as the administrators say, so another hotel was selected for the 1989 Charleston Conference. Sorry about that, to all you devotees. I take full credit, to all of you who haven't really liked it there in years past.

Against the Grain is a quarterly communication for Participants in the Charleston Conference.

Authors' opinions are to be regarded as their own.

Against the Grain will be published (roughly) in March, June, September, and January, if y'all like it. On Marcia Tuttle's urging, an ISSN will be applied for, if this keeps up. But . . . I approach the prospect of adding to the journal population's growth with fear and trembling!

This issue was produced on a Macintosh Plus using a Laserwriter printer.
