Hello Daisuke,

Thanks for the additional publications! I will look into the publications' copyright policies and post them if possible, you will get a notification when they go live. I would like to add that this service is not limited to open journals and we would be happy to take a look at your full CV if you wish. We review the copyright policies at journals that have published your work, reply with a list of your works that can be hosted on Purdue e-Pubs, and (with your permission via email reply) upload the works on your behalf. You can take advantage of this service at any time, by sending us a list of publications and a request for a free CV review.

Thanks for your consent and help,
Devon

Dear Devon,

if the journals permit (BMC Bioinformatics and GigaScience), I am very happy if you could upload the papers on Purdue e-pubs.

Actually, we have 3 recent papers on another open journal, Scientific Reports:

And we have more some older BMC Bioinformatics papers:

And on another open journal:

Again if these journals permit (can you please check), I am happy to have them uploaded on Purdue e-pubs.

Thanks,

Daisuke
