Connections

With this issue, we are introducing information about job openings that we know about. This is intended to be an informal listing and is not a formal classified listing as in other journals. Remember, we are Against the Grain.

Richard Jasper (Emory) tells us that Emory is still seeking an Assistant Director for Collection Development.

So, we understand, is the University of Hawaii . . .

And Corrie Marsh is looking for a Serials Coordinator Librarian, Gelman Library, George Washington University. Coordinates serials records control and database quality, supervision and management of serials and GPO depository units in Acquisitions department, and serves as a subject specialist for selected academic programs. Plan implementation of NOTIS serials control. $26,000 minimum. Apply by September 30th to Andrea Stewart, Executive Coordinator, Gelman Library, The George Washington University, 2130 H. Street, NW, Washington, DC 20052.

Carol Chamberlain (Penn State University) is looking for a Head of the Receiving Section (Monographs and Serials).

In the future, send notices of jobs to Katina Strauch, Editor, or to any Against the Grain staff member if you would like information included in this space. And vendors and publishers out there, you are included, too — that is, if you aren’t making so much money that you don’t want to spread it around hiring people! 🎉
