Against the Grain

In this issue:

- Rumors
- Letters to the Editor
- From Your Editor
- Deadlines

FEATURES
- The Academic Library World Looks at Public Libraries
- Guest Editor, Margaret Landesman
- Our Users Are Your Users
- by Margaret Landesman — Academic and public libraries share core values and goals. We share users. We can get closest to filling our mission if we work at this together and if both sets of librarians work at telling both sets of users about both sets of libraries.
- A View Toward the Public Side of Scholarly Communication
- by John Ober — There is untapped potential to share and collaborate on scholarly communication issues, starting with public access to publicly-funded research results.
- Medical Information
- When Limited Access Can Have Life-changing Consequences by Sally Patrick — There is no subject where information being current, accurate, and thoroughly validated is as critical as it is with medical information.
- “Free to all”
- Made Possible by an Academic/Public Library Collaboration by Barbara G. Preece — As the first large library consortium to announce a self-funded partnership with a major digitalizing project, the Open Content Alliance, the Boston Library Consortium is providing materials with none of the restrictions that apply to materials scanned by Google or Microsoft.
- The Alabama Vision
- by Sue O. Medina — Library users need to move easily among their communities’ libraries, seeking information regardless of the “type of library” available to them. No single library or type of library can meet all the needs of its users.
- Enriching Communities
- A Shared Interest for Academic and Public Libraries by Anne Carr-Wiggins and Louise Reimer — Public libraries are grounded in the cornerstone belief that they are central to the quality of life in their communities, working within a framework of community partnerships.

REVIEWS
- From the Reference Desk
- Reviews of Reference Titles by Tom Gilson — This month Tom’s selections include Oxford University Press’ African National Biography, Sage’s Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society, and Women in the American Civil War published by ABC-Clio.
- Parlez-vous Francais? by Thomas Leonhardt — The Oxford-Hachette French Dictionary is up-to-date and “gets right to the heart of both languages.”
- Book Reviews
- Monographic Musings by Deb Vaughn — "Read an ALA source that ponders Net Gen researchers.”

ATG INTERVIEWS
- W. Eric Emerson — Executive Director, Charleston Library Society

ISSUES, NEWS, & GOINGS ON
-ka

The Informed Librarian

- Publishers: A. Bruce Strauch
- Send correspondence, press releases, etc., to: 209 Richardson Ave., MSC 98, The Citadel, Charleston, SC 29409, phone: (843) 953-3536, fax: (843) 953-0791. ka

Against the Grain is indexed in Library Literature, LISA, Index to the Informed Librarian.

ANNUAL REPORT ISSUE
ATG SPECIAL REPORTS

Academic Libraries After Print..............44
by Allen McKiel — Allen believes the three primary foci of the academic library of the future are acquisition, instruction, and publication.

10 Steps to Implementing an eBook Collection: A Guide for Librarians ...47 by Cynthia Cleto — Electronic books and periodicals provide flexibility, economy, and efficiency traditional publications cannot match. Here are some pitfalls to avoid.

Promoting and Embedding E-textbooks: The Library Challenge .................48
by Caren Milloy — JISC Collections held a workshop with UK higher education librarians to acquire a deeper understanding of the issues that librarians and information professionals face when promoting and embedding e-textbooks into learning and teaching processes.

Using Rare Books to Inspire Learning — Part 1: Anthropology - Diaries....70 by Gene Waddell — Numerous lists of great books have been prepared, and this list contains many of the same titles, but differs in significant respects.

Collaboration and Context: Wikis in the Workplace....................................79 by Keith Engwall and Steve McKinzie — Are libraries discovering the potential of Wikis?

LEGAL

Edited by Bryan Carson, Bruce Strauch, and Jack Montgomery

Legally Speaking..................................57
Copyright and For-Profit Educational Institutions by Bryan Carson — Librarians and faculty members in for-profit schools face different challenges from those in nonprofit or governmental institutions. This can have a substantial impact on the educational process.

PUBLISHING

Biz of Acq............................................62
Quick Tips for Media Selection and Acquisitions by Matt Bailey — Specialty media collections, such as video collections, can be a challenge for collection management and acquisitions librarians who often have to work without a media librarian in-house.

From the University Presses..........64
How to Establish a Research Agenda for

BOOKSELLING

The DLB At Thirty.........................72
by Matthew J. Bruccoli — This is a brief history of the DLB, the most comprehensive published literary reference work for all periods.

Somethng To Think About .........73
What Now? by Mary (Tinker) Massey — Has your library been invaded by coffee?

As I See It!.........................................74
Libel Law in the UK: Free Speech Under Threat? by John Cox — The UK law of libel has been under the spotlight in recent months.

Little Red Herrings..............75
Stop the Presses! by Mark Y. Herring — A new study found that the “Google Generation” is not very Web-literate.

TECHNOLOGY AND STANDARDS

Standards Column ..................82
The Problems of Institutional Identification: Toward a Universal Institutional ID by Todd Carpenter — Institutional identification is a complicated issue with many overlapping concerns, problems, and use cases.

Technology Left Behind........83
Let’s Go Zotero by Cris Ferguson — The development of bibliographic management services has fundamentally changed the way many researchers keep track of their research resources and create bibliographies.

I Hear the Train A Comin’............84
Stanford in Second Life by Greg Tananbaum — Stanford has created a virtual library within Second Life. Greg recently interviewed two of the founding forces behind Stanford’s foray into this brave new (cyber)world.

Adventures in Librarianship — Performance Appraisal..............................76
by Ned Kraft — The Capricious Library System is the answer ....

Unconventional ...

ATG is your key to the latest news about libraries, publishers, book jobbers, and subscription agents. ATG is a unique collection of reports on the issues, literature, and people that impact the world of books, journals, and electronic information.

Uncommon ...

Against the Grain is your key to the latest news about libraries, publishers, book jobbers, and subscription agents. ATG is a unique collection of reports on the issues, literature, and people that impact the world of books, journals, and electronic information.

Against the Grain / February 2008