Against the Grain

Table of Contents

v.14 #1 February 2002 © Katina Strauch

Issues, News, and Goings On

Rumors ............................................. 1 From Your Editor ....................................... 6
Deadlines ............................................. 6 Letters to the Editor .................................... 6

Features

ATG Annual Report Issue

The Impact of Tasini: Forward ......... 1 by Kent Mulliner
TASINI: Did Authors Win? .......... 20 by Laura N. Gasaway
The Politics of Librarianship and the Tasini Case ........... 22 by Rick Anderson
Filing Tasini Was the Signal Event ... 26 by Mike Bradley
Libraries Continue to Take on Copyright Challenges ........ 26 by Prudence S. Adler and Miriam M. Nisbet
Response received from Lexis/Nexis Corporate Counsel .......... 30

ATG Interviews

Richard Charkin ........................................ 40 Mike Eisenberg .................................... 42
CEO — Macmillan Publishers, Ltd. Dean of the Information School — University of Washington

ATG Profiles Encouraged

Edited by Allison Mays (Acquisitions Librarian, Millsaps College, 1701 N. State St., Jackson, MS 39210; Ph: 601-974-1083) <maysap@millsaps.edu> and John Long (Consultant) <john-long@worldnet.att.net>

Company Profile .................................... 41 People Profile ...................................... 51
Euromonitor International ........................... 50 Professor Lali Chatterjee
Publisher Profile .................................... 50
American Mathematical Society

Reviews

From the Reference Desk .................. 52 Book Reviews .................................... 55
Reviews of Reference Titles by Tom Gilson — Encyclopedia of Ocean Science, Encyclopedia of Physical Science and Technology, and Encyclopedia of Global Change are just some of the titles reviewed in this issue.

Legal Issues

Edited by Bryan Carson, Bruce Strauch, and Jack Montgomery

Cases of Note ...................................... 57 Fair Use and The Common Law of Copyrights by Bryan Carson
Polaroid, People & Rolex Go Down on the Mat with the Strength Element by Bruce Strauch

<http://www.against-the-grain.com>
ANNUAL REPORT ISSUE
LEGAL ISSUES cont'

Questions and Answers .......... 63
Copyright Column by Laura Gasaway — Would an individual need explicit permission from a library to scan older books, convert them to text, and republish them? This is just one of the questions that Laura answers for us in this issue.

PUBLISHING

Biz of Acq ............................... 66
Assessing Legal Collections: Trying to Eke Out a Method From the Madness by Brian Flaherty — A thorough review of a collection can seem daunting, especially when electronic resources must be considered. In this column, Brian Flaherty, Reference Librarian at Suffolk University Law Library, offers a detailed case study of collection assessment in a specialized academic library.

Biz of Acq ............................... 69
What Color Is Your Hat? Ethics in Library-Vendor Relations by Lawrence Nagel — The library science literature exhibits numerous overviews of acquisitions ethics; largely written from the librarian’s perspective. In this column, Lawrence Nagel, Western Regional Manager for Midwest Library Service, surveys the ethics of the book business from the vendor’s point of view. He offers many valuable insights, especially regarding the ethics of entertainment.

Devil’s Advocate ........................ 72
Killing the Goose that Laid the Golden Egg by Bob Molyneux — The information revolution that we are living through centers around conversion of the human record to digital formats and the flexibility of those formats for manipulation and generation of new information products. But, a revolution has winners and losers and a revolution’s losers are often those who controlled the old order.

And They Were There .............. 75
Hu Ming Rong and Yuan Haiwen were at the China Society of Library Science’s 2001 Annual Conference in Chengdu in Southwest China in September. The conference focused on library digitization.

Bestsellers ............................. 76
Biographies by Françoise Crowell — As Americans we love to read about the rich and famous. But whose lives populate our shelves under biography? Fifty top selling biographies are listed here. How many of them are in your collection?

BOOKSELLING AND VENDING

Something About Books ............. 49
by Jack Walsdorf — Jack recently attended the Kentucky Book Fair which included a number of authors he collects and admires. Read on to find out who.

Inside Pandora’s Box ................. 77
Suggestions for Improving Customer Service Today by Michael Steinmacher — Planning and implementation of a customer service strategy can be a daunting task. Michael shares some simple steps that can be taken to immediately improve customer service.

Oregon Trails — Books and Bookstores ................................................. 78
by Tom Leonard — Well, last year (2001) Tom lived in Bremen, Germany and Eugene, Oregon. He tells us that he judges a community by its library services. Sounds like a good yardstick to us!

Bet You Missed It ........................ 80
by Pamela Rose — What do Microsoft and TiVo have in common? Read about it in this issue.

INTERNATIONAL

International Dateline ................ 64
by Anthony Watkinson — What does it look like in the information environment across Europe? Anthony gives us a glimpse.

TECHNOLOGY AND STANDARDS

Edited by Sandra K. Paul and Albert Simmonds

Chaos ..................................... 81
Webworthy .............................. 85
by Pamela Rose — Unique and interesting Websites organized by broad subject area.

UCITA: A Bad Law Protecting Bad Software by Norman Desmarais

ETC.

Rumours from Paddington .......... 12
by Daryl Rayner

On the Road ............................. 36
by Alfred Jaeger — A story about travel and some encouragement for those who have not flown since September 11th.

Against the Grain / February 2002