E & B took top honors in the flexible pavement category for an eight-mile section of Ind. 37 from I-69 to north of Ind. 38 in Hamilton County. Also receiving certificates of recognition were Jim Maddox (far left), Vincennes District area engineer, accepting on behalf of DOH project supervisor Marlin Lux, and Steve Imran (far right), project engineer from the Greenfield District. Lux was project supervisor on the Ind. 54 contract and Imran was project engineer on the Ind. 37 work. Pavement Smoothness awards are made annually by the IDOH in recognition of outstanding work performed for the state by contractors. The Highway Department supervisors on the project are also recognized.

Safety awards, the purpose of which is to recognize and commend a good safety record and to promote further on-the-job safety, are presented yearly to the Highway district and subdistrict having earned the best safety record during the preceding twelve months. Awards are based on the lowest number of accidents per man-hour worked and are presented by IDOH each spring at Road School.
