Table of Contents

Editor

Follow this and additional works at: http://docs.lib.purdue.edu/atg
Part of the Library and Information Science Commons

Recommended Citation
DOI: http://dx.doi.org/10.7771/2380-176X.3441

This document has been made available through Purdue e-Pubs, a service of the Purdue University Libraries. Please contact epubs@purdue.edu for additional information.
Against the Grain

TABLE OF CONTENTS

v.13/4 April 2001 © Katina Strauch

ISSUES, NEWS, & GOINGS ON

Rumors ............................................. 1  From Your Editor ............................ 6
Deadlines .......................................... 6  Letters to the Editor ............................ 6

FEATURES

Guest Editor: Deborah Vaughan (College of Charleston) <vaughnd@cofc.edu>

Using the Automated OCLC/ WLN Conspectus at a Small University ....... 1
by Pauline C. Williams — Accreditation and self-study are why the University of Montevallo started down the path that eventually led them to use the automated OCLC/WLN Conspectus. Here's how it's worked.

Chameleons in our Midst:
How Scholarly and Professional Roles are Changing due to Technology ..... 26
by Ana Arias Terry — It's no secret that evolving technology has changed all our lives. Ana has talked to several of us about our new approaches. Here's what she found out.

I, User — Questions, Questions: Grunge, Bliss and a 48 Hour Free Trial ....... 32
by Rick Lugg and Ruth Fischer — Well, have you tried Questia yet? Rick and Ruth have. Read all about it!

A Library View of the SPARC Initiative ...................................................... 34
(Scholarly Publishing & Academic Resources Coalition) — Carla Stoffle, a member of SPARC's Steering Committee since its inception in 1998, sets out here to remind readers of SPARC's purpose and history while evaluating SPARC's long-term effectiveness.

Op Ed — Opinions and Editorials ......................................................... 40
Reaction to “A Publisher's View of the SPARC Initiative” by Michael Rosenzweig — Here's one reaction to Anthony Watson's “A Publisher's View of the SPARC Initiative,” from the Dec. 00-Jan. 01 issue of Against the Grain.

ATG Annual Report Survey ......................................................... 42 by Mike Litchfield — The Fourth ATG Annual Report Survey focused on budgets, staff, and electronic resources. All the results are here!

Millennium Minutes ............................................................... 46
The Ditto Machine by David R. Fritsch — In this month’s Millennium entry David confesses the frustration, agony, and pain brought on by one very old contraption known as “the Ditto Machine.”

Back Talk .................................................. 86
This month, Tony Ferguson finds himself “In Between.” Read on to find out more.

PROFILES ENCOURAGED

Edited by Allison P. Mays (Acquisitions Librarian, Millsaps College, 1701 N. State St., Jackson, MS 39210; Phone 601-974-1083) <maysap@millsaps.edu>

John Riley ............................................. 58  Sales Director — Eastern Book Company
Lee Rouner ............................................ 66  Professor of Philosophy, Religion and Philosophical Theology, and Director — Boston University Institute for Philosophy and Religion

Anna Lännström .................................... 66  Program Administrator — Boston University Institute for Philosophy and Religion

ATG INTERVIEWS

Angela Adair-Hoy ................................. 48  e-Book Publisher and Author

Dan Halloran ........................................ 51  President, Blackwells Book Services, Inc.

REVIEWS

Book Reviews ........................................ 56

<http://www.against-the-grain.com>
SLA, MLA ISSUE
LEGAL ISSUES
Edited by Bruce Strauch and Jack Montgomery

Legally Speaking ..................................... 60
Databases, Tasini and the Information Age by Bryan M. Carson
Copyright Corner — Importance of the Public Domain ....................... 63 by Laura N. Gasaway — In this month’s column Laura tells us what “Public Domain” is, and why it is important in copyright law.
Cases of Note ..................................... 64
Copyright - Implied Licenses by Bruce Strauch — Website Wars! What happens when that friendly oral contract with the techies breaks down?

PUBLISHING
Innovations Affecting Us ..................... 66
Free Books and Party: What a Concept by Allison P. Mays — In the world of acquisitions, it doesn’t get any better than this! The Boston Institute could be starting a new trend in acquisitions.
Sense and Sensibility .......................... 67
by Margaret Landesmann — Once you’ve established that a title is high quality, are there common-sense ways of getting an idea of what the price should be? In this new column, Margaret shares her views on this subject.

And They Were There ...................... 68
Reports of Meetings — YBP GOBI Users Meeting by Janet L. Flowers
Bestsellers on the European Union ...... 70
YBP Bestsellers by Françoise Crowell
Book Pricing Update ......................... 74
Mid-year Prices — Although overall inflation has been low, its effect on prices has not been equal in different parts of the world. Tom Loughran provides some insight on how the US, UK, and the rest of the world have shown markedly different trends in the list prices of new scholarly books.

UNCOMMON...

BOOKSELLING
Biz of Acq ........................................ 72
How Title Source II Changed the Way North Las Vegas Library District Does Acquisitions - And Other Functions — In this month’s column Marylou Hale provides an enlightening case study of the impact of an online acquisitions system on a busy public library.
Issues in Vendor/Library Relations .... 75
Report on the OhioLINK-YBP Relationship: Serendipitous Advantages of Buying Monographs as a Consortium — When YBP became the monographs vendor for OhioLINK more than two years ago, they were nervous about the discounts and service requirements. David Swords tells us how it all turned out.
From the Other Side of the Street .... 76
University Presses: making progress or roadblocks? — Thomas Bacher defines why presses are so important to the process of scholarly interchange and development.

TECHNOLOGY AND STANDARDS
Edited by Sandra K. Paul and Albert Simmonds
Webworthy ................................. 83
Unique and interesting Websites organized by broad subject area and edited by Pamela Rose. This month’s subjects are Anthropology, Astronomy, Biochemistry, Museums and Reference.
Wandering the Web ......................... 84
Folk Life Resources by Jack G. Montgomery — In 1846, “folklore” referred to the ballards, folksales and customs of the rural past. Nowadays “folklore” refers to the everyday culture and traditions of all social groups. Here’s an extensive list of Websites on this subject.

ETC.

Call for Papers, Columns, Ideas, etc. ... 43
Now is the time! Tell us what you want to see in Against the Grain. Or send us something that you have written. Okay. Do it today!
Adventures in Librarianship ............. 52
Spite License — Check out these unusual licensee terms offered on Stick-It Notes by Ned Kraft.

“Linking Publishers, Vendors and Librarians”
Against the Grain

Uncommon ...
Against the Grain is your key to the latest news about libraries, publishers, book jobbers, and subscription agents. ATG is a unique collection of reports on the issues, literature, and people that impact the world of books, journals, and electronic information.

Unconventional ...
ATG is published six times a year, in February, April, June, September, November, and December/January. A six issue subscription is available for only $40 U.S. ($45 Canada, $50 foreign), making it an uncommonly good buy for all that it covers. Make checks payable to Against the Grain, LLC and mail to: Katina Strauch 209 Richardson Avenue MSC 98, The Citadel Charleston, SC 29409

<http://www.against-the-grain.com>