ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT EFFORTS IN RECYCLING
BY INDIANA SOLID WASTE DISTRICTS

1997 PURDUE ROAD SCHOOL
TUESDAY, MARCH 25TH, 1997

A. Solid Waste District formation, history and mission.

B. Integrated Solid Waste Management Strategic Plans.
   1) The Hierarchy of Solid Waste Management.
   2) Building Infrastructure from reuse to collection, recovery, to disposal.
   3) Public/Private and Public/Public Partnerships.
   4) Recycling as a Solid Waste Management Tool.

C. Closing the Loop & The Need for Economic Development.
   1) Improving Materials Management in Indiana, by creating demand for recovered materials.

D. The Evolving Role of Solid Waste Districts.
   1) Samples of economic development efforts among districts to create demand for recovered materials.

E. Case Study - LaPorte County Solid Waste District.
   1) History

F. The Grants Program in LaPorte County And Materials Recovery.