Editorials of the Day

Agents Provocateurs.
[Deseret (Ill.) Herald]

Vigilancy in the federal prohibition forces, while far from universal, of course, is common enough to make this establishment a blot upon a nation that has generally been honest, if not always brilliant, served in its administrative departments. Politics and local opposition, undoubtedly account for much of the slack, but there is an open question of

Enforcing Impossible Laws

A restaurateur in a southern state challenges The Wall Street Journal for its critical attitude towards prohibition, and takes the sensible course of canceling his subscription. Incidentally, he mentions that he is taking a trip around the world, anyway. It is to be hoped that his friends will not draw any improper inferences.

Without going into the merits of prohibition, if it were remotely possible to enforce it now or after 15

Perspectives on Prohibition weren't just black and white. They came in every shade.

Absolute Law Enforcement

Col. R. E. Prich, Federal prohibition administrator, has promised Los Angeles in emphatic language that it will see absolute enforcement of the prohibition laws on New Year's Eve, or as complete enforcement as a small army of determined officers can make it.

It is a big order. It is violating nobody's confidence to add that this is the first time

Call for Sanity!

An attempt to repeal the 18th amendment will not help the cause of law enforcement, or of simplifying the prohibition statutes in the interest of better morals through a more unified respect for the law.

Washington correspondents say that Representative Dyer, of Missouri, will introduce a repeal

ACS Legacy Archives
An Essential Record of the Chemical and Related Sciences
1879 to 1995

23 journals. 971 volumes. 11,117 issues. 464,233 articles.

New ACS Web subscription policies, effective 2006, redefine a current Web Edition subscription as access to articles published from 1996 onwards. This new policy has led to the creation of the ACS Legacy Archives, which provides full-text searching and instant access to all titles, volumes, issues, and articles published by the ACS from 1879 to 1995.

New One-Time Payment Option
The ACS now features a one-time payment option to access ACS Legacy Archives beginning with 2006 subscriptions. This one-time payment option secures ongoing access rights to the Archives content. Customers who choose the one-time payment option access the Archives from ACS servers and are charged a nominal annual maintenance fee. For those taking advantage of the one-time payment option in 2006, the annual maintenance fee will be waived.

More than just chemistry...
ACS Legacy Archives covers a legacy of scientific advances from biochemistry to bioconjugate chemistry and toxicology, inorganic chemistry to organometallics, energy and fuels to environmental science and technology, and medicinal chemistry to natural products. It is an essential record of the chemical and related sciences, from 1879 to 1995.

Learning has no boundaries

You know your students need IEEE information. Now they can have it, and you can afford it.

IEEE recognizes the special needs of smaller colleges, and wants students to have access to the information that will put them on the path to career success. Now, smaller colleges can subscribe to the same IEEE collections that large universities receive, but at a lower price, based on your full-time enrollment and degree programs.

Bring Some Fun Into the Library.

Popular fiction has a place in every library. It helps create a social atmosphere that online learning can't provide. Leisure reading builds a sense of community. It is a shared activity, reinforcing scholarship and bringing students together.

And it's fun. Commercial bestsellers offer a chuckle in the middle of serious research and competitive scholarship. These books are light-hearted. Exciting. Sometimes silly. Always entertaining. Easily forgotten. You know...fun.

The APS Journal Legacy Content

One-Time Fee of $2,000
Saves 200 Linear Feet of shelf space

This Legacy Content is available online only and can be purchased separately at a one-time charge. It is a separate program from the Subscription Program in that you pay once ($2,000) for the perpetual access to the online content of 14 APS journals from 1898 to 1996-1998 (depending on the journal). This content goes back to the first issue of each of the APS journals—including APS's first journal in 1898, the American Journal of Physiology. This Legacy Content can be viewed as completely searchable scanned images of the printed pages. (find more info at: www.the-aps.org/publications/legacy)

Serials Solutions' new Electronic Resource Management System (ERMS) offers librarians a complete solution for managing and controlling e-resources.

ERMS leverages the industry's leading knowledgebase and combines it with unique, feature-rich analytical tools that convert data into actionable information and insights. A full-featured e-resource management system, ERMS solves the complexity associated with managing the entire e-resource life-cycle. Because it is hosted by Serials Solutions, you do not have to invest time and money installing and maintaining the knowledgebase, software, or servers.

ERMS is a core element of Serials Solutions' ongoing mission to deliver complete solutions for today's electronic collections. Deployed as a stand-alone solution or integrated seamlessly with Serials Solutions' industry-leading resource discovery products – Central Search, Article Linker, Full MARC Records, and Access and Management Suite (AMS) – ERMS delivers the premier management solution for today's librarians.

Attend a live web seminar and discover the excitement surrounding Serials Solutions' ERMS.
Never underestimate the importance of a librarian.

Okay, chances are you won't actually find a librarian at the North Pole. But librarians do play a vital role on any exploration team, enabling research breakthroughs and real-time solutions. Whether you're selecting information for research communities or decision support for professionals, Elsevier provides access to the highest quality scientific, technical and health information in multiple media, including innovative electronic products like ScienceDirect® and MD Consult. After all, getting the right information into the right hands at the right time is critical to launching any successful experiment. Building Insights. Breaking Boundaries."

New online subscription for AIP Conference Proceedings
AIP created a new subscription in 2005 that provides online-only access to our Conference Proceedings series. Volumes are available from January 2000 forward — more than 275 volumes — and the cost for all institutions is $4,950. This offers significant savings off the price of a print standing order and the price will remain unchanged for 2006. Online access is still available to standing order customers at no charge. Get a free 60-day trial — e-mail corr@aip.org!

Get all AIP content with AIP Archival Plus package
AIP has expanded its discounted package subscription offerings with the introduction of AIP Archival Plus. This package includes all the content of the AIP Archival combination, complete backfiles as available, and the following titles: AIP Conference Proceedings (online only), Geochemical Transactions (online only), Journal of Physical and Chemical Reference Data, and Low Temperature Physics.

2006 prices now available — visit http://librarians.aip.org

License a prestigious collection of science and engineering journals
AIP can tailor a consortia package to your needs, allowing you to provide electronic access to an unlimited number of users — regardless of their physical location. Many of the more than 75 journals in our collection are among the most highly cited in their field. Societies participating in AIP’s consortia program include APS, ASME, OSA ASA, AVS, AAPT, AAPM, SoR, ICDD, SEG, and ECS. For further information, e-mail mdrago@aip.org.

AIP’s Scitation Usage Report Service is now COUNTER compliant
AIP’s Scitation Usage Report Service is now fully COUNTER compliant. All registered users are notified each month as new reports are published; it is no longer necessary for users to specify the start and end date of each report. Usage data for each month is available in every report, and a running total for the year is provided. In addition, subscribers will be able to download reports in a variety of file formats. For more information and a list of participating societies, visit www.scitationreports.org.

Jobbers serving libraries with any book in print.
"I think I've finally gotten the serials list back into shape."

"How about the standing orders?"

"They've always been with Midwest. Never had a problem there!"

For over forty years, Midwest Library Service has been quietly relieving librarians of the problems often associated with book and standing order purchasing.

Our Continuation & Standing Order Service is based on intensive, personal contact with thousands of publishers to ensure prompt and complete fulfillment on series, sets, annuals, yearbooks, and proceedings. It is our goal to take the guesswork and anxiety out of continuations and standing order fulfillment through timely shipments and thorough reporting.

Using sophisticated tracking programs, Midwest monitors pre-publication information and shipping schedules instead of relying on publisher-based systems. We will customize the fulfillment frequencies on annuals and yearbooks on a title-by-title basis. In the case of a delayed or missing edition, we contact the publisher by telephone to ensure fulfillment. Of course, you have access to historical fill data whenever needed. And to make matters even easier for you, we will assist in the seamless transfer of standing orders placed previously with publishers or other booksellers.

In an unstable time of publisher upheavals and understaffed, harried libraries, isn't it good to have a vendor you can count on?

If you are not completely satisfied with your current vendor, look to Midwest for all your book buying needs.

For more information, contact a Standing Order specialist at 800-325-8833 or standingorders@midwestls.com.
