Against the Grain

Table of Contents

v.18 #2 April 2006 © Katina Strauch

Issues, News, & Goings On

Rumors .................................................. 1
From Your Editor ........................................... 6
Letters to the Editor ......................................... 6

Features

Guest Editor, Mary Page (Rutgers University Libraries)

Electronic Resources Rocked My World! What’s Changed and How We Manage by Mary Page — Ordered, logical processes are not likely in the electronic world.

But I Checkered the Ejournal List five articles... by Abigail Bourdeaux — A view from Public Services. Patrons don’t want to go back to print but they do want a simplified workflow for something that they need.

Friend or Foe — Digital Resources Within Library Collections by Julian Everett Allgood — A view from Cataloging. The print-to-electronic dynamic has come full circle during last ten years. What has happened and what will happen in the next ten years?

Managing Digital Resources, or, How Do You Hold Electrons In Your Hand? by Anna L. Creech — From an electronic resources librarian. Long before computers and the advent of the internet, serials librarians managed their collections regardless of the form they came in.

Serials Cataloging in the Digital Environment: Fast, Faster, Fastest? by Mary Greci — Staffing issues from a serials cataloger. How extensive are the changes to cataloging processes caused by the digital format?

ATG Interviews

Victoria Reich ........................................... 50
Eileen Fenton ........................................... 54
Director, LOCKSS Program, Stanford University Libraries by Cris Ferguson

Profiles Encouraged

Mary Page .................................................. 18
Abigail Bourdeaux ......................................... 22
Julian Everett Allgood ...................................... 28

Reviews

Reviews from the Reference Desk ....................... 57

Monographic Musings by Debbie Vaughn — This month, explore public radio.

Books That Matter ......................................... 60

Zen and the Art of ERM by Ellen Finnie Durancourt — Ellen points to the many information professionals who are looking for peace of mind, focus, clarity, and a sense of cohesion in their work that they have found elusive. Boy, isn’t that the truth!

<http://www.against-the-grain.com>
MLA, SLA, BOOK EXPO ISSUE
LEGAL ISSUES
Edited by Bryan Carson, Bruce Strauch, and Jack Montgomery

Cases of Note ..................................................63
The Attrezi of Trademark Violations — Reverse Confusion by Bruce Strauch

Questions and Answers .........................64
Copyright Column by Laura Gasaway — Questions and Answers galore!

PUBLISHING

Books Are Us ........................................65
by Anne Robichaux — In Alice Hoffman’s sixteenth novel, The Ice Queen, the narrator is a nameless librarian, and the tale is “a magical story of passion, loss and renewal.”

Biz of Acq ...........................................66

From the University Presses .................69
Copyright R&R by Peter Givler — Are librarians and publishers doomed to be perpetually at odds with each other about the meaning and significance of copyright?

BOOKSELLING

Drinking From the Firehose ..................70
It’s Never Too Late: 10 New Year’s Resolutions to Suggest to Publishers of E-Journals by Eleanor I. Cook — Eleanor says that she was too busy linking up e-journals to get her resolutions in the February issue of ATG, but she’s never too late to make suggestions for improvement. Publishers, listen up!

Something To Think About ...............72
Where Are the Shelves? by Mary Tinker Massey — Where can we put all the periodicals that we are still getting in print?

Little Red Herrings .........................73
What Do Academic Library Deans Do? by Mark Herring — We’ve always wondered about this. Now we have it in black and white.

Book Pricing Update .......................73
Book Price Inflation Highest in Years by Tom Loughran — That’s the bad news. The good news is that most high inflation years have been followed by years with relatively modest increases.

And VENDING

Case Studies in Collections and Technical Services ..........................75
Case Study Three: The Ticking Clock of Tenure: The Case of the First Article by Anne Langley — What to write about? How to start?

Lost in Austin .................................76
102 Books by Thomas W. Leonard — Tom read 102 books last year. Here are some of his comments.

Issues in Vendor/Library Relations ........78
100 Chefs by Bob Nardini — Did you know that Google has 100 chefs?

Bet You Missed It ..........................78
by Pamela Rose — What do alligator and sushi have in common? Read about it here.

INTERNATIONAL

International Dateline .......................80
The Importance of Metadata and Interoperability by Dr. Peter T. Shepherd — The rapid advance of electronic publishing has created a growing need for an expanding range of reliable metadata to support the publishing and management of information resources.

TECHNOLOGY AND STANDARDS

Standards ...........................................82
Libraries, Data Providers, and SUSHI: the Standardized Usage Statistics Harvesting Initiative by Adam Chandler and Tim Jewell — Keeping up with usage data is a major problem. Enter SUSHI ...

IMHBCO ...........................................83
In My Humble But Correct Opinion — Thinking About the Value of Staff Time by Rick Anderson — It’s all well and good to say that staff time is scarce and valuable, but how do we determine what an hour of staff time is actually worth?

I Hear the Train A Comin’ .....................84
LOCKSS and Portico by Greg Tananbaum — We have interviews with Vicky Reich and Eileen Fenton in this issue. This column complements those interviews.

ETC.

Remembering Papa Lyman ..................8
by Karen Schmidt

2006 Charleston Conference ................8
Call For Papers, Ideas, Panels, Debates, Distrubes, Speakers, Poster Sessions, Preconferences, etc. ....

Adventures in Librarianship ...............14
Glossary of Terms by Ned Kraft — What I want to know is how does Ned dream these up? I wonder what he dreams about?

ATG Fiction Contest .........................72
Here’s your chance to get into print and reach thousands of readers starved for fiction.

“Linking Publishers, Vendors and Librarians”

Uncommon ...

Against the Grain is your key to the latest news about libraries, publishers, book jobbers, and subscription agents. ATG is a unique collection of reports on the issues, literature, and people that impact the world of books, journals, and electronic information.

Unconventional ...

ATG is published six times a year, in February, April, June, September, November, and December/January. A six issue subscription is available for only $40 U.S. ($50 Canada, $70 foreign), making it an uncommonly good buy for all that it covers. Make checks payable to Against the Grain, LLC and mail to:

Katina Strauch
209 Richardson Avenue
MSC 98, The Citadel
Charleston, SC 29409

<http://www.against-the-grain.com>