Back Talk ....................... 94
Continuity and Change by Tony Ferguson — As librarians we used to live in a cultural world. Younger librarians today would have no knowledge of the catalog filing parties that would sometimes be held to bribe everyone in the library to help Cataloging catch up.

ATG Fiction Page ................. ATG Insert
“Old Friends, New Eyes” by Jill Coupe — Read about tea, transformation, and libraries.
REVIEWS

From the Reference Desk .............................. 74
Reviews of Reference Titles by Tom Gilson — Encyclopedia of African American History, 1619-1895; From the Colonial Period to the Age of Frederick Douglass; Atlas of North American English, Phonetics, Phonology and Sound Change; and Encyclopedia of World Poverty are just a few of the titles Tom reviews this month.

Book Reviews .............................................. 76
Monographic Musings by Debbie Vaughn — In honor of November’s Election Day and all things pertaining to law and government, this issue’s column highlights affirmative action, copyright, contracts, and legal history.

LEGAL ISSUES
Edited by Bryan Carson, Bruce Strauch, and Jack Montgomery
Legally Speaking ........................................... 82

Cases of Note ............................................. 84
Substantial Similarity Must Be More Than Skin Deep. Try Six Feet. by Bruce Strauch — Have you heard about the screenplay called...

“Linking Publishers, Vendors and Librarians”

Uncommon ...

Against the Grain is your key to the latest news about libraries, publishers, book jobbers, and subscription agents. ATG is a unique collection of reports on the issues, literature, and people that impact the world of books, journals, and electronic information.

Unconventional...

ATG is published six times a year, in February, April, June, September, November, and December/January. A six issue subscription is available for only $45 U.S. ($55 Canada, $75 foreign), making it an uncommonly good buy for all that it covers. Make checks payable to Against the Grain, LLC and mail to: Katina Strauch 209 Richardson Avenue MSC 98, The Citadel Charleston, SC 29409

LEGAL ISSUES

“The Funk Parlor?” Yes, it’s about that entertainment favorite, dysfunctional folks, in a funeral parlor.

Questions and Answers ................................. 84
Copyright Column by Laura Gasaway — Questions and Answers galore! Here’s a sample: What are the implications of scanners being used in libraries and archives as opposed to photocopying? Are there differences?

PUBLISHING

Biz of Acq ..................................................... 86
Values: A Human and Organizational Resource by John Fenner and Audrey Fenner — Managers can and must determine which values are critical to organizational function and which are not.

And They Were There ................................. 88
Reports of Meetings by Sever Bordeianu — Our thanks to Ramune Kubilius, who has reported on MLA and SLA for this issue.

Drinking From the Firehose ....................... 64
Blogs Are Making Me Feel Old! by Eleanor Cook — New technology has taken hold in the last few years with super-duper cell phones, Ipods, Blackberries, and Wikis.

Little Red Herrings .................................... 90
Vertigo, and a Void by Mark Herring — Recently an acquaintance sent Mark the Friends newsletter from the UMA. As the budget came to its close last year, the budget line called “Education and Reference Materials” (ERM), served to fund the 29 public academic libraries in Massachusetts. What makes this a story worth retelling is that from these funds come library materials, not equipment or salaries.

Issues in Vendor Library Relations ........ 91
The Concord Coach by Bob Nardini — Bob has been doing a little reading in the Concord Public Library.

TECHNOLOGY AND STANDARDS

Innovations Affecting Us .............................. 66
The “Next Generation” of Library Access by Kristen DeVoe — Could it be true? Marcia Bates notes that “people do not just use information that is easy to find; they even use information that they know to be of poor quality and less reliable, so long as it requires little effort to find...”

I Hear the Train A Comin’ ......................... 92
Course Management Systems (CMS) by Greg Tananbaum — This month Greg has a discussion with Isabella Hinds about the rapidly spinning world of course management systems.

Technology Left Behind ..... ATG Insert eBook Rollout by Cris Ferguson — Cris has compared some of the eBook offerings out there. Hooray!

ETC.
