Dear Editor:

Greetings — I just had an opportunity to read Mark Herrings’ June 2008 “Little Red Herrings” column for ATG (n:20#3, p.75). I wanted to thank Mark for providing a fair and balanced look at the Blended Librarian approach that John Shank and I have been sharing the last few years. We’ve never been evangelistic about the ideas or the community. We simply put it out there as something that our colleagues may find of interest to them. If it doesn’t appeal to you (a “naysayer” I guess), feel free to find whatever works for you. John and I respect that there are other librarians out there offering their own solutions that might have more appeal for some librarians than what we have to offer. We do find that our ability to offer ongoing free Webcasts on topics related to digital preservation, digital preservation for the smaller academic library, eBooks, and more. We have several special reports from Tony Horava (libraries as publishers; publishers as libraries), Jeanette Smith and Elizabeth Titus (the MLS), and Camille McCutcheon (psychology collection development). Our interviews this issue is with Helen Parr, Executive editor of Medical Online and Ursula Schwarz in Philip Hallman’s Media Minder.

Back Talk is about butterflies and POD technology, Greg Tananbaum’s Train column gets us to thinking about the theme of the 2008 Charleston Conference — The Best of Times, The Worst of Times, Todd Carpenter talks about standards and culture shock, Cris Ferguson clicks her way to information literacy, Rick Lugg and Ruth Fischer take on a new identity with their column — from I, User to Future Tense — and discuss weeding, Xan Arch tell us about Wikis in acquisitions which we can all take to heart. There is so much more in this issue and even more to come in November so do not quit reading.

Now I have to stop and go to, you guessed it, a meeting … who was it that said “meetings are held to discuss many problems which would never arise if we held fewer meetings?”

Love, Yr. Ed.

From Your (meeting-d out) Editor:

The beginning of the school year is always hectic — meetings, meetings, and more meetings! And this year has its own set of new challenges.

But we still persevered and turned out another outstanding issue of Against the Grain thanks to our many columnists and guest editors! This issue is guest-edited by the incomparable Bruce Heterick of JSTOR and encompasses many important issues and questions that we all must consider for the good of the order of librarianship and our place in society. Topics covered include ejournal archiving, library director attitudes toward businesses, Andrew took on global responsibility for the Acquisitions and Distribution functions. In March 2005, he took on the role of BBS UK Managing Director and led the recovery in performance within that business unit. Andrew helped to guide the business through another system change when Blackwell Book Services moved from its mainframe technology to a new Windows-based system. In March 2007, Andrew was appointed Blackwell Book Services CEO. Congratulations, Andrew and good luck as you expand into the Retail side of the business!

Basch Subscriptions has moved into a larger facility! The new facility is spacious (to accommodate continuous growth), bright and still in downtown Concord, NH. Here are the new details: Basch Subscriptions, Inc., 10 Ferry Street, Concord, NH 03301, Phone: 603-229-0662 (no change). Fax: 603-226-9443 (no change). His two preconferences at the 2008 Charleston Conference are among the most popular as well. I tell you , it is impossible to keep up with the Energizer Buzzy!
