When Utopias can somehow be linked to a political entity, the subsequent delirium from would-be followers numbers millions.

As I See It................................... 76
The Tussle Over European Rights by John Cox — British and US publishers had a cozy arrangement over English language territorial rights. But the internal trading rules of what we now know of as the EU effectively made this arrangement unenforceable.

Papa Abel Remembers.................... 77
Tale of A Band of Booksellers, Fasicle 3: Learning the Sales Call by Richard Abel — Wherein we learn something about marketing a business.

Group Therapy............................ 79
Screening of Donations? by Christine Fischer — Some tips to streamline and expedite your gift book processing procedures.

TECHNOLOGY AND STANDARDS
Technology Left Behind............... 86
Making Friends Online: Library Use of Social Networking Services by Kris Ferguson — In the ATG February issue, Karen Christopher discussed a variety of social media and their uses. In this issue Kris has taken a more in-depth look at one particular social media.

Innovations Affecting Us ............ 88
A Home-Grown License Manager: Is It For Your Library? by Kristen DeVoe — Natalie Hattig, Electronic Resources Collection Management Librarian, was involved with the design and implementation of a home-grown license manager at FSU Libraries.

LITTLE RED HERRINGS................... 75
On Remembrance of Things Past: Woodstock and the Counterculture by Mark Herren — When Utopias can somehow be linked to a political entity, the subsequent delirium from would-be followers numbers millions.

AND VENDING
Little Red Herrings..................... 75
On Remembrance of Things Past: Woodstock and the Counterculture by Mark Herren — When Utopias can somehow be linked to a political entity, the subsequent delirium from would-be followers numbers millions.

LEGAL ISSUES
Edited by Bryan Carson, Bruce Strauch, and Jack Montgomery
Cases of Note .............................. 64
Googling Our Way to Big Social Benefit by Bruce Strauch

NOT SUCH A BIG DEAL ................. 67
by Mary Ann Liebert — The fact is that Many Too Many is Much Too Much. Selectivity is an option that may be becoming obsolete.

BIZ OF ACQ................................. 72
Predicting Serials Inflation Rates in the Era of Electronic Resources by Patricia Smith and Donnco Coenchaun — Librarians can no longer rely on predictions based on external price surveys, since individualized contracts and the variety of pricing models make it difficult to gather reliable cost statistics. New methods of estimating inflation rates are needed.

AND THEY WERE THERE............... 80
Reports of Meetings — In this issue we have tons of reports from the 2006 Charleston Conference. Printed proceedings are coming up in the fall. Plus, Kris Ferguson has reported on the 2007 Electronic Resources and Libraries Conference.

BOOKSELLING
Bet You Missed It ....................... 12
Press Clippings — In the News by Bruce Strauch — What do Britannym Spears and Google have in common? Read about it here!

Library Marketplace ................... 63
by John Riley — Elizabeth Fitzpatrick reviews Google and the Myth of Universal Scholarship by Jean-Noel Jeanneray.

Convictions ............................... 68
Lessons for Library Benefactors by Matthew J. Brucoli — Some recommended policies for donors of books, manuscripts, and other literary research resources.

ISSUES IN VENDOR RELATIONS ...... 70
Column People by Bob Nardini — What’s the difference between blogs and columns? Are columnists obsolete? What good columnists do offer readers is a point-of-view, their own way of thinking, and an attitude, their own way of expressing themselves.

UNCOMMON ...
Against the Grain is your key to the latest news about libraries, publishers, book jobbers, and subscription agents. ATG is a unique collection of reports on the issues, literature, and people that impact the world of books, journals, and electronic information.

UNCONVENTIONAL ...
ATG is published six times a year, in February, April, June, September, November, and December/January. A six issue subscription is available for only $45 U.S. ($55 Canada, $75 foreign), making it an uncommonly good buy for all that it covers. Make checks payable to Against the Grain, LLC and mail to:
