Letters to the Editor

Send letters to <kstrauch@comcast.net>, phone or fax 843-723-3536, or snail mail: Against the Grain, MSC 98, The Citadel, Charleston, SC 29409. You can also send a letter to the editor from the ATG Homepage at http://www.against-the-grain.com.

Dear Editor:

First off, thanks again for being so generous with your time and allowing me to call you. I enjoyed our conversation!

I am a first semester Master’s of Library Science student at San Jose State University of California. I came across Against the Grain while researching for a paper on Patron-Driven Acquisition. I was so happy to see an entire journal issue dedicated to this topic! I was even happier when I set off in my (91) Volvo to help him out! And I did! (end of hope)

But that was just the beginning of the adventure. That very same weekend we found out he told him not to get rid of the Volvo (92) wouldn’t start (hope?). So — I decided to ignore the flaming issues, and interesting — presenting insider looks at the non-library professional. I’ve learned a lot just by reading. I also really enjoy the blog aspect of your Website — I feel like that really opens a dialog between readers and writers, which is what librarians help to do, whether electronically or in person. I especially like the Multigrain and Wondering Wednesday sections. I’ve added Against-The-Grain.com to my blogroll!! Thanks for making this possible!!

Yours, Nicole Fitzugh (Berkeley, CA 94709) <nicolem@objectif.org>

AND we ignored the other appliance-type stuff (refrigerator, dishwasher) the house needed.

Special Report by John Schimmertoth about the Encyclopedia of Associations, a Legally Speaking about the recent 2nd Circuit Court decision about the first sale doctrine, and Biz of Acq is about backlogs. For sure, there’s a lot more in this issue

Oops! I just found out that my heating and air conditioning system needs repair! There seems to be water somewhere it shouldn’t be! When it rains, it pours! (no pun intended!?) Lucky me!

See y’all in Charleston in November!

Much love, Yr. Ed.

September 10. The wedding was in Asheville at the same place where Anna and her husband met which was also where Beth and her husband met. Anna is in Asheville working and considering hospital administration. Her husband James Arthur Hodan is also in the medical field, working with prosthetics. Obviously, these two young people know where the money is from the aging baby boomers, don’t they? Congratulations to Beth and Anna and the husbands too.

Speaking of September 10! Was talking to the wonderful David Magier who is the brains behind the “flaming” preconference (see below). He told me that his wife and he have the same wedding anniversary as my husband Bruce and I do! September 10. But we have a few years on them — 26 to be exact! And now we are joined by Anna and James! Congratulations, everyone!

Speaking of which, we had to cancel the “flaming issues” preconference but watch for our blog on these issues and for the updated preconference (or main conference panel) in 2012! So sorry that it didn’t come together this year!

We are still getting registrations for the 2011 Charleston Conference. Right now, we have 1,305 people registered 226 more than were registered at the same time in 2010! Hmmm. It’s gonna be fun and something’s gotta give!

Was sad to learn that the incredible Amanda Harmon (UNC-Charlotte) has retired and this is her last Charleston Conference. Maybe not? Have been asked to have a registration fee for retired librarians, and why not? What do you all think?

Other preconferences, however, are taking place! Can’t wait to see how the E-Everything preconference and Webinar come off! Did you notice that this issue is guest edited by the razor-sharp Audrey Powers? Many of the papers in this issue are by speakers at the e-everything preconference.
