PUBLISHING

Biz of Acq.................................46
Navigating a Collaborative ERMS Trail from Planning to Implementation at ASU Libraries by Smita Joshipura and Betsy J. Redman — It is important to have a designated position solely focusing on managing ERMS.
@Brunning: People & Technology....48
At the Only Edge that Means Anything/ How We Understand What We Do by Dennis Brunning — As always Dennis is very provocative.

BOOKSELLING

Bet You Missed It .......................12
by Bruce Strauch — What do yucca flowers and lamb’s quarters have in common?
Something To Think About ..........36
Responsibility for the Future by Mary E. (Tinker) Massey — Making older information available to researchers is a major task.
Issues in Vendor/Library Relations...55
Telecommute by Bob Nardini — Driving from Tennessee to New Hampshire gave Bob some time to think and to appreciate the physical world we live in apart from the virtual world.
Oregon Trails...............................57
Book People I Have Known by Tom Leonard — Tom reminisces about a lot of things but especially Bernard M. Rosenthal.
Little Red Herrings.......................59
Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin by Mark Herring — Drawing on Belshazzar’s disembodied hand and the changes at Harvard, Mark implores us as a profession to offer solutions that may be contrary to what we’ve done in the past.

And They Were There...................51
Reports of Meetings — IFLA by Frederick Lynden, and the first installment of reports from the 31st Charleston Conference.

TECHNOLOGY AND STANDARDS

I Hear the Train A Comin’ — The Research Works Act.........................8
by Greg Tananbaum — In late 2011, the Research Works Act was introduced into the U.S. House of Representatives. In essence it would repeal the 2008 law that mandated PubMed Central deposits for NIH-funded research.
Pelikan’s Antidisambiguation — Seeing the World Through New Eyes ........63 by Michael P. Pelikan — Michael illustrates how technology and platforms are changing how we perceive events, how we conduct ourselves, and how we will remember.

Standards Column — Toward an Open Discovery Ecosystem...............69
by Todd Carpenter — Providing understandable and usable access to digital materials is a critical service that requires the engagement of all members of our community.

“Linking Publishers, Vendors and Librarians”

Uncommon ...
Against the Grain is your key to the latest news about libraries, publishers, book jobbers, and subscription agents. ATG is a unique collection of reports on the issues, literature, and people that impact the world of books, journals, and electronic information.

Unconventional ...
ATG is published six times a year, in February, April, June, September, November, and December/January. A six-issue subscription is available for only $50 U.S. ($60 Canada, $85 foreign, payable in U.S. dollars), making it an uncommonly good buy for all that it covers. Make checks payable to Against the Grain, LLC and mail to:

Katina Strauch
209 Richardson Avenue
MSC 98, The Citadel
Charleston, SC 29409

*Wire transfers are available, email <kstrauch@comcast.net> for details and instructions.
