Future Dates
LEGAL ISSUES

Legally Speaking ..................................................42
Questions and Answers ........................................44

Copyright Column by Laura Gasaway — Is copying from memory an infringement of copyright? Lolly tells us in this issue. Also included is a Correction! Re: Placing a personal copy on reserve.

eBooks Price-Fixing Lawsuits Skimming Along by Bill Hannay

Cases of Note — Copyright .......................................42
Nashville Squabbles — Declaratory Judgment by Bruce Strauch

PUBLISHING

Biz of Acq ..............................................................46
Navigating a Collaborative ERMS Trail from Planning to Implementation at ASU Libraries by Smita Joshipura and Betsy J. Redman — It is important to have a designated position solely focusing on managing ERMS.

@Brunning: People & Technology ................................48
At the Only Edge that Means Anything/How We Understand What We Do by Dennis Brunning — As always Dennis is very provocative.

BOOKSELLING

Bet You Missed It ..................................................12 by Bruce Strauch — What do yucca flowers and lamb’s quarters have in common?

Something To Think About ....................................36
Responsibility for the Future by Mary E. (Tinker) Massey — Making older information available to researchers is a major task.

Issues in Vendor/Library Relations ..........................55
Telecommute by Bob Nardini — Driving from Tennessee to New Hampshire gave Bob some time to think and to appreciate the physical world we live in apart from the virtual world.

Oregon Trails .......................................................57
Book People I Have Known by Tom Leonhardt — Tom reminisces about a lot of things but especially Bernard M. Rosenthal.

Little Red Herrings ..............................................59
Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin by Mark Herringer — Drawing on Belshazzar’s disembodied hand and the changes at Harvard, Mark implores us as a profession to offer solutions that may be contrary to what we’ve done in the past.

And They Were There .............................................51
Reports of Meetings — IFLA by Frederick Lynden, and the first installment of reports from the 31st Charleston Conference.

Booklover ..........................................................68
Poetry by Donna Jacobs — This is about Tomas Gästa Tranström, the Swedish poet.

590: Local Notes ..................................................online
See the discussion between Rick Anderson and Steve McKinzie on the ATG NewsChannel at www.against-the-grain.com/

AND VENDING

Collecting to the Core ............................................60
Physics by Michael Formire and Debra Kolah — Books we need to keep in our collections.

Acquisitions Archaeology ......................................62
Monographic Modes by Jesse Holden — The discussion about format of content has shifted from the early 1990s when we were discussing whether to buy hardback or paper books.

Under the Hood ..................................................64
E-textbooks and the Library by Xan Arch — The technologies and products that the library uses for e-content are very different to those that are marketed to the campus technology department.

Curating Collective Collections ...............................65
What’s Your Plan? Writing a Collection Management Plan by Sam Demas and Mary Miller — What is a collection management plan and do you have one?

TECHNOLOGY AND STANDARDS

I Hear the Train A Comin’ — The Research Works Act ..................................................8
by Greg Tananbaum — In late 2011, the Research Works Act was introduced into the U.S. House of Representatives. In essence it would repeal the 2008 law that mandated PubMed Central deposits for NIH-funded research.

Pelikan’s Antidisambiguation — Seeing the World Through New Eyes ........................63 by Michael P. Pelikan — Michael illustrates how technology and platforms are changing how we perceive events, how we conduct ourselves, and how we will remember.

Standards Column — Toward an Open Discovery Ecosystem ..................................................69
by Todd Carpenter — Providing understandable and usable access to digital materials is a critical service that requires the engagement of all members of our community.