ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

The Editorial Board would like to offer special thanks to the following:

Dr. Tara Saunders, The Purdue History Department's Academic Program Manager, for her kindness, patience, and assistance in the publication of The Purdue Historian.

Dr. Kathryn Brownell, Phi Alpha Theta's advisor, for her assistance in reviewing submissions and help in the publication of The Purdue Historian.

The Purdue University Department of History for their promotion of the journal and encouraging the submission of manuscripts.

FOREWORD FROM THE EDITORS

The Editorial Board is excited to release the tenth volume of The Purdue Historian, an Undergraduate Journal of History. The Historian compiles papers composed by undergraduate students at Purdue University. The peer reviewed journal covers all aspects of history. Following a call for papers, the Editorial Board selected three outstanding works from a pool of quality essays. The Editorial Board takes engagement, original research, and scholarship into consideration.

With pride, the Editorial Board is excited to present the newest issue of The Purdue Historian.
