NOTICES AND CALL FOR PAPERS

NOTICE OF VACANCY

The University of Iowa (Iowa City, IA) has announced an opening for an Assistant Professor of Rhetoric and English beginning Fall 1982. The person hired will be responsible in the first or second year for teaching entry-level performance courses in Rhetoric (writing, speaking, reading); Expository Writing, an undergraduate elective; and Interpretation of Literature, a required sophomore course. Later, the person will assume the seminar-practicum for Writing Lab teachers; an advisory seminar for TA's in Rhetoric; and upper level undergraduate or graduate courses in rhetoric and composition and/or literature whenever feasible.

Applicants should have completed a doctorate by Fall 1982, and have appropriate experience in teaching writing and literature. They should also indicate their abilities to engage in scholarly research and writing, and to work with colleagues in departmental and professional activities.

CALL FOR PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS
Special Interest Session
for Writing Lab Directors and Staff
1983 CCCC (Detroit, Michigan)

Although the recent 4 C's is barely behind us, it's already time to begin making plans for the 1983 conference to be held in Detroit, March 24-26. In order to prepare a proposal for a special interest session for writing lab directors for next year, we must put together a program and submit a proposal to the program chair by the end of June. Therefore, I am asking those of you who are interested in participating to submit your proposals to me by May 20, 1982, so that I can meet the official proposal deadline.

I plan to use the same format arranged so effectively by previous chairs. That means our program, if accepted, will consist of eight workshops, each of which will be repeated so that everyone can attend two. Following a brief introductory session, participants will join the first workshop of their choice. After thirty minutes the workshops will conclude. Then there will be a fifteen-minute break to allow for time to examine materials at the Exchange Table. During the final thirty minutes, all workshops will be repeated.

If you are interested in leading a workshop, send me a detailed abstract of the proposed content and format. The sooner submissions reach me, the more time I will have to study them, make selections, and prepare a competitive proposal. I also need a volunteer to be in charge of the Materials Exchange Table and another to serve as recorder.

I look forward to hearing from a number of you so that I can plan a session which will be a profitable as those of past years. Please send proposals to:
