Library Bestsellers

Column Editor: Julie Gammon

Bookstores can have their bestsellers, but so can libraries. With this issue of ATG, we will report on titles which are circulated frequently in a variety of contributing libraries. The first contributing library is LSU in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and our list comes courtesy of Chuck Hamaker. Included on this list are 63 titles which were added to the LSU collections between January and August, 1991 and which were the TOP circulated. To be on the list, a book had to have one circulation for each month it was in the library, except no book was included with less than four circulations.
