Library Bestsellers

Column Editor, Julie Gammon

Continuing in our tradition of letting you know what books are being circulated the most in reporting libraries, here is a contribution of the most requested titles in the Charleston County Library in Charleston, S.C. for the month of February, 1992. These are books which the library had multiple copies of, but still received at least five "Holds" for the books listed for that month period. Thanks go to Tom Walker of the Charleston County Library for providing us with this information. Contributions from other libraries are welcome.
