Corrections:

Jane Bowman Smith's article, "A Tutorial Focusing on Concrete Details: Using Christensen's Levels of Generality," contained formatting errors on pp. 62-64; the text should have reflected Christensen's descending order rather than the numbering system presented.

Formatting errors also appeared in Louise Z. Smith's article in the same issue, and a corrected version will be reprinted in the next issue of the journal.

The Editors regret these printing errors and extend apologies to the authors.
