This is an Open Access journal. This means that it uses a funding model that does not charge readers or their institutions for access. Readers may freely read, download, copy, distribute, print, search, or link to the full texts of articles. This journal is covered under the CC BY-NC-ND license.
The Purdue Journal of Service-Learning (PJSL), a multidisciplinary Open Access journal available in print and online, is dedicated to undergraduate students who conduct projects with strong service-learning and academic civic engagement aspects. By involving students in an intensive writing activity and showcasing the opportunities available at Purdue, the journal will enhance the use and effectiveness of the pedagogy of service-learning as a high-impact learning methodology. Special thanks to Chris Brannan and Katherine Purple (Purdue Press) and staff at Marketing and Media. Reflective essays, research with reflection articles, community partner snapshots, profile interviews, and community-inspired cover art in PJSL are copyrighted by their authors. Other content is copyright Purdue University.
