IWCA Information

The Assembly: The International Writing Centers Association, an NCTE Assembly, was founded in 1983 to foster communication among writing centers and to provide a forum for concerns. Comprising directors and staffs of writing centers at universities, two-year colleges, and K-12 schools, the IWCA is governed by an Executive Board that includes representatives from the regional writing center organizations in the U.S and abroad.

Publications: The Writing Center Journal, edited by Melissa lanetta and Lauren Fitzgerald, offers in its two issues per year longer articles on writing center theory and research. Members may also subscribe to The Writing Lab Newsletter, edited by Muriel Harris, with their membership package. In addition, information on the International Writing Centers Association Press is available on the website.

Awards: IWCA offers the following awards: 1) Muriel Harris Outstanding Service Award, awarded once in four years at alternate IWCA conferences. 2) Outstanding Article Award, awarded once a year at the IWCA Collaborative @ CCCC; nominations deadline is January 15 annually. 3) Outstanding Book/Major Work, awarded once a biennium at IWCA conferences; nominations deadline is June 15 of even years. 4) Research grants for professionals and graduate students whose research focuses on writing centers, awarded twice a year—proposals due January 1 and July 1. 5) Speaker grants to regional IWCA affiliates, awarded once a year upon request to the Treasurer. Further information about these awards is available at writingcenters.org/about/awards.

Meeting: The IWCA Executive Board conducts business online monthly throughout the academic year. Minutes of the meetings are available to the membership on the IWCA website, and an open IWCA Special Interest Group (SIG) is offered to the general public at every conference meeting.

International Writing Centers Association Research Grants Guidelines

Purpose: The International Writing Centers Association (IWCA) serves to strengthen the writing center community through all of its activities. To encourage the advancement of existing theories and methods and the creation of new knowledge and support of new colleagues, the IWCA offers its Research Grant and Graduate Research Grant. These grants support quantitative, qualitative, theoretical, and applied projects associated with writing center research and application. The Graduate Research Grant supports projects associated with a master's thesis or doctoral dissertation. While funding travel is not the primary purpose of these grants, we have supported travel as part of specific research activities (e.g., traveling to specific sites, libraries, or archives to conduct research) or to disseminate research findings that this grant also funded. However, this fund is not intended to support solely conference travel; instead, that travel must be part of some larger research program stipulated in the grant request.

Application: Complete application packets contain the following items (electronic applications accepted):

1. Cover letter: Addressed to the current IWCA President, the letter should do the following:
 - request IWCA's consideration of the application
 - introduce the applicant and the project
 - specify how grant monies will be used (materials, travel, conference registration, etc.) in an itemized budget
2. Project Summary: 1–3 page summary of the proposed project, its research questions and goals, methods, schedule, current status, etc. Locate the project within the relevant, extant literature.
3. Curriculum Vitae

4. For Graduate Research Grant only—Letter of Support: Please include a support letter from the thesis/dissertation director.

Process: Proposal deadlines are January 1 and July 1. After each deadline, the IWCA President will forward copies of the complete packet to the awards committee for consideration, discussion, and vote. Applicants can expect notification within 4–6 weeks from receipt of application materials.

Stipulations:

1. IWCA support must be acknowledged in any presentation or publication of the resulting research findings.
2. Copies of resulting publications or presentations must be forwarded to IWCA in the care of the Executive Secretary.
3. Recipients must submit a final project report to the IWCA Board, in care of the Executive Secretary, due within 12 months of receipt of grant monies. If the project extends more than one year, recipients must file a progress report to the Executive Secretary at the one-year point.
4. Recipients are strongly encouraged to submit a manuscript coming out of the supported research to one of the two IWCA-affiliated publications, The Writing Lab Newsletter or The Writing Center Journal, or to the IWCA Press, with the understanding that they are willing to work with the editor(s) and reviewer(s) to revise the manuscript for potential publication.

For information or to discuss the project's fit to the award's guidelines, contact the current IWCA President, name and address available at writingcenters.org/about/governance.
