From your (surveying) editor

Well, winter is coming, and the hardworking, incredibly energetic staff of Against the Grain has completed another issue! Let's hear a round of applause!

The issues just keep getting better and better! Here's what you'll find in this one — what some of you are reading, the 80/20 rule, dealing with generosity, a new kind of profile, a look at the Great Depression, Special 301 and trade, a lot on copyright and fair use, interviews with Elsevier and EBSCO, and I've just scratched the surface.

Look — in this issue there is a readers' survey which was designed by the indefatigable team of Edna Laughrey and Joyce Ogburn. It's right in the middle of the issue, right there where you can see it. I want you to feel incredibly GUILTY if you don't fill it out.

So there. Don't forget the Charleston Conference coming up November 3-5 in beautiful, historic, captivating, warm and sunny Charleston. See you here!
