Morehead State University — Camden-Carroll Library's Fifty Most Circulated Titles

by Elsie Pritchard
(Director for Technical Services and Automation)

Morehead State University is a regional state university in eastern Kentucky, with a primarily undergraduate enrollment of 8,500 students. Historically, the University has served as a teacher-training institution, and this is still one of the University's largest programs. Camden-Carroll Library is a centralized library of about 400,000 titles, serving the campus and the surrounding community.

These books all circulated at least 46 times since 1987, and at least once in the last year. The list excludes fiction, reserve books, and non-print materials. Titles are listed in descending order by the number of times circulated.
