Publisher Bestsellers

University of Texas Press

Column Editors: Julia A. Gammon (Univ. of Akron) and
Kathleen Ketterman (University of North Carolina Press)

In this issue we move "... deep in the heart of Texas ..." with a list of bestsellers and the number of books sold to date from the University of Texas Press. Do you know what the bestselling poetry book in the United States is? According to Keri North, publicist for the press, it is one of their publications, entitled One Hundred Love Sonnets by Pablo Neruda which has sold over 70,000 copies to date. Besides publishing over 90 books per year, the University of Texas Press also publishes 13 journals. If you have a yearning to read about bats, Keri says that interest in bats is currently high, and that they have two books which fill this niche — including Bat House Builder's Handbook by Merlin D. Tuttle. Now there is one I bet you don't have in your collection!
