Against the Grain

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ISSUES, NEWS, & GOINGS ON
1 Rumors
6 Deadlines
6 From Your Editor
6 Letters to the Editor

FEATURES

Charleston Conference Issue
1 Outsourcing in American Libraries — An Overview
by Sever Bordeleau and Claire-Lise Benaud

Outsourcing is one of those issues that riles people. Two reactions are guaranteed when the topic comes up: librarians always have an opinion about it, and everybody has an outsourcing story to tell.

22 Outsourcing “Down Under” Alison Grant has queried her colleagues in Australia and New Zealand regarding their use of outsourcing.

24 An Experiment in Outsourcing at the College of Charleston Libraries by Katie Bleisky Over the past several years, the College of Charleston has had in increase in student enrollment. As is being done elsewhere, the Library has begun to look for methods to increase productivity without any expected increase in staff in order to prevent accumulating a large backlog of uncataloged materials.

28 Op — Ed — Opinions and Editorials — The $160 Million Question: What Happens to the Federal Money Paid for University Research Libraries? by Albert Henderson The only major Federal financing of academic library collections is justified as one of the indirect costs of sponsored research. The government pays $4 billion as its “fair share” of expenditures underlying $8 billion direct costs of research contracted to universities. These indirect costs are divided almost equally between administration and facilities. A tiny fraction supports libraries.

46 Against the Grain Annual Report Survey — FILL THIS OUT!

94 Back Talk — Tony Ferguson — Gear Shifter or Cogs in the Gears? Are we librarians the people shifting the gears from how information is acquired, processed, stored and preserved now, to how it will be done in the future or are we some loose nuts and bolts in the gears, trying to stop or slow down the process?

INTERVIEWS

30 Gary Herald — President, Ambassador Book Service — by Katina Strauch
34 Nigel Farrow — President — Ashgate Publishing — by Katina Strauch

REVIEWS

37 From the Reference Desk — Plenty more reference reviews

LEGAL ISSUES

Edited by Anne F. Jennings (InfoFacto) and Jack Montgomery (U. of Missouri, Columbia)

44 Continuing the Debate: New Protocols for Scholarly Communication by John E. Cox
47 Legally Speaking — Lloyd Rich discusses Who Controls Electronic Rights — The Writer or the Publisher?
51 Cases of Note — Anne’s been hard a work reading cases on Copyright Registration.

Against the Grain / November 1997

<http://www.against-the-grain.com>
LEGAL ISSUES (con’t)

54 Juris Libris — Anna Wyatt tells us about Building an Estate Planning Collection for the Pro Se Patron — that’s the patron who wants to find information him or herself.

PUBLISHING

60 Book Pricing Update — Expensive Titles — Charles Wittenberg tells us that Blackwell’s North American Approval Plan in 1996-1997 made available to customers 827 items with list prices over $200 (average price: $294). That was only 1.9% of the total cost of approval books.

61 Oregon Trails — Tom Leonhardt has moved to Oregon and is taking about Poetry this month.

62 Publisher Bestsellers — University Press of Kentucky

BOOKSELLING AND VENDING

63 And They Were There — Reports of Meetings — UKSG, and SALALM.

65 What do “slinky theory,” sports statistics and and Richard Abel have in common? Check out this month’s Bet You Missed It!

68 Papa Lyman Remembers — Deadlines

68 Group Therapy — Jane Clarkson wants to know: “How do you check in e-journals?”

70 On The Street — Book Vendors and Services to Libraries.

72 In Praise of Bookshops... Claire Fund interviews Rare Booksellers -- Lin and Tucker Respess.

INTERNATIONAL

76 International Dateline — Gita Gunatileke tells us about some special materials from New Zealand.

22 Outsourcing “Down Under” Alison Grant has queried her colleagues in Australia and New Zealand regarding their use of outsourcing.”

78 Times of Troubles: An Interview with Wes McCann about Northern Ireland Libraries by Ron Chepesiuk.

TECHNOLOGY AND STANDARDS

Edited by Sandra K. Paul (SKP Associates) and Albert Simmonds (R.R. Bowker)

80 Back to the Future: At Last Librarians Chart a New Course in Scholarly Electronic Publishing — HighWire Press, an enterprise unit of Stanford University Libraries and Academic Information Resources, is charting new waters as co-publishers of low-cost, graphically-rich Internet editions of University and scholarly society e-journals.

86 It Is Time to Become Discriminating Consumers by Peter B. Boyce It’s time to become more sophisticated. As the magic of receiving scholarly journals (or even just the tables of contents) from the World Wide Web wears off, we, as consumers of electronic information, have to wipe the stars from our eyes and take a hard look at what is being offered under the rubric of “electronic journal.”

88 Innovations Affecting Us — Second Generation Online Systems from Book Vendors by Judy Luther.

90 Doc Aquis — This one’s about Doody’s Review Service.

92 Chaos — Sandy Paul talks about Electronic Data Interchange — An Update and Look at the Future.

ETC.

41 Annual Report Survey — Fill This Out — NOW!

20 Call for Papers — Annual Report Issue

<http://www.against-the-grain.com>