From Your (reading to my recovering husband) Editor:

One reason I haven't retired is that I can't figure out what I would do with all my time. But I now know, I can go to nursing school. I know there is a shortage! Have been spending some time in hospitals and there are many great role models. But when I wasn't reading, I was pursuing the occupation of editing Against the Grain. This is easy when you have a guest editor like the effervescent Ramune Kubilius who has put together a series of papers on Trends in Health Science and Biomedical Sciences Information Services Provision. Besides an introduction by Ramune, we have papers by Carla J. Funk, J. Michael Homan, Lenny Rhine, Mary A. Hyde, Lisa A. Palmer, Anneliese Taylor, Susan K. Kendall, Elizabeth R. Lorbeer, and Michelle A. Kraft. In our Op Ed for this issue Mark Herring talks about the Google Book Decision while Tony Ferguson talks about paradise in his Back Talk column. We have interviews with Neil Blair Christensen and Francis Pinter and plenty of profiles to read as well. Tom Gilson and Debbie Vaughn have done their usual great reviewing jobs. We have Bill Hannay's Legally Speaking column and Lolly's answers to more questions. There are some random ramblings, a discussion of consortial DDA, some things we need to know about engineering handbooks and computing instructions manuals, and Donna Jacobs says we should not judge a movie by its book, and there's lot more.

Patient is now asking for me to find another book to read. I just finished reading him Laura Hillenbrand's Unbroken: A World War II Story of Survival, Resilience, and Redemption. Maybe next is Seabiscuit?

Meanwhile, back to you in June and on the ATG Website! Happy Spring!

Love, Yr. Ed. 🌱
