FEATURES

The Future of the Monograph

Guest Editors, Adriaan van der Weel and Colleen Campbell

Perspectives on the Future of the Monograph .....	1	Why Monographs Matter.....	24
---	---	----------------------------	----

by Adriaan van der Weel and Colleen Campbell — The monograph has a venerable history but is its future assured?

by Geoffrey Crossick — Crossick makes a compelling case for the open access monograph.

The Ecology, Evolution and Future of the Monograph .....	14	Monographs in a Changing Reading Culture .....	26

by Agata Mrva-Montoya — Agata speculates that while the monograph may no longer be the predominant medium in the transmission of knowledge, it remains a keystone species in the scholarly communications ecosystem and is vital for the future of scholarship.

by Adriaan van der Weel — Adriaan says we are living through a major revolution in the way we consume text and that there is no reason to be pessimistic.

Monograph Publishing in the Digital Age.....	17	Op Ed .....	40

A View From the Mellon Foundation by Donald J. Waters — Can the need to advance scholarship be reconciled with the need to drive down the costs of both manuscript and other long-form publication to affordable levels?

Our History Is Disappearing Under Our Noses - Literally! A Proactive Approach to Circumvent a Failing Preservation Technology by Joe Mills — What efforts are being made to preserve centuries old print collections?

Reading and Writing Monographs ...21	Back Talk .....	86

the Dual Role of Researchers and the Demand for Dual Formats by Colleen Campbell — Colleen interviewed doctoral students at the EUJ in Fiesole, Italy. All expressed concern for the monograph and the belief that everybody's writing and nobody's reading.

The Great Flip by Ann Okerson — The mot du jour is "flipping the model" for journal article publishing. These days, "flip" (in journals publishing) points to a particular kind of change, from subscription to APC.

Monographs as Essays, Monographs as Databases .....	22	Charleston Conference 2016.....	8
---	----	---------------------------------	---

Or, the Irrelevance of Authorial Intent by Rick Anderson — The use of monographs print or electronic has obviously changed with availability and preference of the end user. The intent of the author as to how he/she wanted the book used is not relevant.

Issues in Book and Serial Acquisition — Call for Papers, Ideas, Preconferences, Speakers, etc.

Management Benchmark Report ....	36	The 2016 Outsell Information

by Katina Strauch — This important report points out "tipping points" for the information profession and the people who manage it.

Industry Consolidation in the Information Services and Library Environment: Perspectives from Thought Leaders.....	29	Altmetrics and Books: Bookmetrix and Other Implementations.....	84

by David Parker — David Parker, Tom Gilson, and Katina Strauch decided to query some of our colleagues regarding consolidation in the information services and library environment. We have published the first ten responses that we received and we are looking forward to receiving more.

by Donald T. Hawkins — Don found the Bookmetrix system interesting and enjoyable to use.
