From Your (organizing) Editor:

It's bittersweet going through 37 years of meetings, reports, budgets, administrative changes, personnel files. Lots of memories. The graphic of the baby carrying all sorts of books seemed strangely appropriate.

Charleston the city has certainly changed enormously since we moved here in 1977. There were fewer students and practically NO tourists! And only a couple of restaurants. And the Francis Marion was only one of a handful of hotels downtown. Can you imagine?

Moving right along, this issue is awesome! Lindsay Reno has put together a series of essays on adversity and triumph in collection development! How the work has changed! Lindsay and her team tackle issues like deselection, censorship, multicultural picture books, the new normal in collection development, graphic novels in an academic library, weeding in a research library, marketing and promoting library collections, and a Canadian perspectives on acquisitions budgets. Authors include Emily Billings, Allyson Rodriguez, Karen R. Harker, Coby Condrey, Angela Scott Warsinske, Candace K. Vance, Megan Lowe, Christina Carminita, Andrea Hebert, Jennifer Jackson, Michael Shires and there are profiles of most of them!

There are interviews with Liz Mason (Gale Cengage) and Dr. Eric Archambault (1science). Our Op-Ed by Don Beagle delves into the future of libraries and Jim O'Donnell's Back Talk summons the past to advise and guide us into the future. We have even more (13 new ones) perspectives on Consolidation in Our Industry. These are fun to read! We have our usual thorough book discussions with Regina Gong's and Tom Gilson's reviews, Donna's Book Lover, Jeremy Darrington's Collecting to the Core, and Tony Horava recalls Marshall McLuhan as he explores reading and the eBook.

We are happy to have Mick Gusinde-Duffy who discusses the new peer review AAUP best practice handbook. I laugh out loud every time I read Myer Kutz's Scholarly Publishing

Scene in this issue and I'll bet you will too!

Optimizing Library Services

tackles meeting the needs of the digital generation and Winifred Fordham Metz stresses the importance of rich and varied media resources for this new generation of students. Stacey Marien and Alayne Mundt are concerned about lost book records and Bob Kieft wants networked collection development. Ellen Finnie describes the new home at MIT for the collections budget. And there's even more!

I thought I was through with my organizing job this weekend since I just cleaned out my old office in Addlestone Library. But I just found a drawer with stuff to look at and I forgot about the file cabinet in the next office! So much for organizing!

See you soon! Much love, Yr. Ed. 🐾

Donna Jacobs went to the Charleston County Library to find a book for her Book-Lover column this time. Did you see that there is a new Charleston County Library executive director – Nicole Davies who was selected by Library Journal as the 2016 Librarian of the year. Davies led the Arapahoe Library District which serves the suburbs of Denver, Colorado. Davies will take over in October for Cynthia Bledsoe, who has been serving as acting executive director since previous director Doug Henderson retired in January. She will oversee a $108.5 million building and renovation program that voters approved in a November 2014 referendum to build two new libraries, replace three existing libraries and renovate 13 libraries. <http://www.postandcourier.com/20160719/160719377/charleston-library-system>

And Tom Gilson is on the Friends of the Library Board for the Charleston County Library so I hope he will keep us posted! Did you know that at one time Tom worked in a public library?

I was so happy to hear that Jack and Lesley Montgomery were going to finally take a vacation this past summer. Until, distress, Jack tripped on a sidewalk and broke three ribs! Ouch! Jack's mother who lived in Columbia passed away this summer. So very sad. When we run into Jack in Charleston, let's give him an extra hug! Jack has been a Charleston Conference director for probably twenty years!

Was interested to see this interview from the Frankfurt Book Fair with Ruth Pickering and Yewno and a new approach to discovery
