Let Us Handle The Load

Frustrating. Time-consuming. Standing Orders are one of the most burdensome tasks for your library acquisitions staff. And, when delayed by the publisher, book orders can be completely lost in the shuffle.

Save time and effort. Let Midwest Library Service do the work for you!

Research, research, research!

Midwest is proactive, going directly to the publishers to verify publication dates for Standing Orders.

Follow-up & Reporting

Our records are continuously updated and reported. When delayed, we immediately report and monitor your order's status. Online access to your Standing Order account is also available to you via InterACQ.

Prompt Delivery & Accurate Invoicing

You receive your books as soon as they are published, invoiced per your instructions. And, if requested, we can process and supply your order shelf-ready.

Here's what just a few of our customers have to say about our Standing Order Service:

"With Midwest Library Service's standing order service, we are no longer missing publications."

"Thank you for all your investigative hard work!"

"...you've never let us down with your efforts and consistency."

"All I needed to do was provide you a list of titles and vendors. Moving standing orders to Midwest was easy."

"Thank you for cancelling the standing orders with our previous vendor, and cleanly instating the order with Midwest. You made the transition so smooth."
