EXPLORE FRESH TERRITORY

"A vital resource for any academic library..."

Covers a wide variety of interdisciplinary topics, including social movements, migration and immigration, Native American and tribal rights, slavery and race relations, international affairs...and women's history to name a few."

— Aimée C. Quinn, Central Washington University

Territorial Papers of the United States
1764-1953

The most important early American content not yet digitized—until now

For the first time, the Territorial Papers of the United States are available in a digital online collection. Readex's Territorial Papers contains the entire corpus of official papers held by the Departments of State and Interior—the two largest such collections in Washington, D.C.—as well as the U.S. Senate records on affairs in the territories. The result? Unparalleled research opportunities for anyone interested in the creation of modern-day America.
