Publishes new scholarship following tenets of the discipline of comparative literature and the field of cultural studies designated as "comparative cultural studies." Publications in the Journal are indexed in the Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature (Chadwyck-Healey), Arts and Humanities Citation Index (Thomson Reuters ISI-AMCI), Humanities Index (Wilson), Humanities International Complete (EBSCO), International Bibliography of the Modern Language Association of America, & Scopus (Elsevier). International Advisory Board: Aims & Scope: Style Guide: Copyright: All material published in CLCWeb: Comparative Literature and Culture and its Library Series is ©Purdue University. Authors of submissions agree to the journal's copyright upon submission of work for publication to the journal at contact: Images can be published in the journal only if the Journal receives copyright release documentation: Purdue University Press does not purchase copyright release. In the case of the use of scholarship published in CLCWeb: Comparative Literature and Culture in teaching, online use is welcome without permission by Purdue University Press. In websites such as academia.edu, researchgate.net, etc. authors are invited to place the bibliography of published articles with the article's DOI: Digital Object Identification Number (i.e., URL) and not the pdf of the article itself because this diminishes the download counts of publications from the Journal. For the re-publication of an article published in the Journal in any form including translation please contact the journal at