Bibliography of Scholarship in Comparative Latin American Culture and Literature

Sophia A. McCLENNEN

The objective of this bibliography is to present a resource for scholars engaged in the comparative study of Latin American culture and literature. The bibliography includes general theoretical works that contribute to comparative studies of Latin American culture and literature as well as examples of the practice of comparative cultural studies of Latin America. It also includes works about Latin American literature in exile or in diaspora as well as work that touch upon Latin American literature and culture tangentially. Most items in the bibliography are works in English, Spanish, and Portuguese, but works in other languages are represented as well. A number of websites are included in order to provide scholarly resources available online and that lead to further bibliographical references.
