Emerson College Library’s 40 Most Circulated Titles

by Joanne M. Schmidt
(Asisstant Director for Bibliographic Services)

Emerson College is an accredited, four-year college located in Boston’s Back Bay. Its curriculum is devoted to the communication arts and sciences, including the performing arts. The students study mass communication, writing, communication disorders, theater arts, business communications, etc. The Emerson College Library houses over 155,000 volumes. The list of most circulated titles for the last three years doesn’t include items that were on reserve.
