Hey y'all! It is the middle of the night and I am working away on Against the Grain for February. Sitting here, reading all the information that we have all composed for each other to read, I am overcome with a great sense of love for what I am doing and for all of you who are making it possible!

You'll notice a new look to the table of contents with this issue. Do you like it or not?

I guess I have gushed enough. Time to finish what I am doing and get back to bed. Love and kisses to all of you. And happy new year!
