We may not be the most well-known book distributor, but we do seem to be very popular.

Our customers know about those big book distributors on Wall Street, but they keep coming back for our friendly service here on Main Street.

We may not be one of the corporate giants of the world, but that's just fine with us. Our focus has always been service, not size. We wanted our family business to exhibit the same values of our own family, like hard work, generosity, and kindness. We take good care of the libraries and other customers we serve by tracking down each and every book they request, triple checking orders for accuracy, and making sure we are always available to talk to them in person. We've made it a policy to treat our customers like friends, and as a result, many of them are.

A Practical, Hands-on Reference for Professionals, Students and Researchers

Developed under the auspices of Dr. Florence W. Kaslow, one of the world's best known experts in the field of psychotherapy, this groundbreaking work is the first and only reference to provide a detailed analysis of the four major psychotherapy approaches—in both theory and in practice.

Each expertly edited volume is organized by specific client populations: children, adolescents and young adults, adults, families and couples, and groups—allowing the reader to compare each approach and focus on those specific populations and approaches that suit their studies or practice.

Comprehensive yet practical, each volume addresses the major psychological and emotional disturbances that each psychotherapy approach is most effective in treating and provides realistic case examples that bring each approach to life—making this a truly hands-on reference for practitioners, students, and researchers.

About the Editor-in-Chief
FLORENCE W. KASLOW, PHD is Director of the Florida Couples and Family Institute and President of Kaslow Associates in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida. She is also a Visiting Professor of Medical Psychology in Psychiatry at Duke University Medical Center (Durham, North Carolina) and a Visiting Professor of Psychology at Florida Institute of Technology. Dr. Kaslow is editor or author of 22 books, over 50 book chapters, and 160 plus articles in the professional literature.

Nano Letters is a forum for scientists involved in nanoscale research, among a wide range of disciplines that include physical and materials chemistry, biotechnology, and applied physics. This journal reports on fundamental research in all branches of the theory and practice of nanoscience and nanotechnology.

This is the second letters journal launched by ACS, following the 1999 release of Organic Letters, and charged with the same mission: To rapidly communicate preliminary significant research results.

Crystal Growth & Design is dedicated to publishing articles on the physical, chemical, and biological phenomena and processes related to crystal growth and design of new materials. This journal is aimed at a broad and multidisciplinary audience of chemists, physicists, biologists, materials scientists, and engineers.

Crystal Growth & Design is the second collaborative publishing venture with SPARC* after Organic Letters.

*SPARC: Scholarly Publishing Academic Resources Coalition. SPARC fosters competition in the scientific-publishing marketplace by creating relationships with scholarly publishers to distribute cutting-edge research to libraries and other institutions more quickly and at a significantly lower cost.
The Highest Impact Letters Journal in Organic Chemistry

In only its second year of publication in 2000, Organic Letters rocketed to #7 in impact factor out of 48 journals in Organic Chemistry*.

Now in its fourth volume, Organic Letters publishes original reports of fundamental research in all branches of the theory and practice of organic, physical, organic, organometallic, medicinal, and bioorganic chemistry.

*SPARC: Scholarly Publishing Academic Resources Coalition. SPARC fosters competition in the scientific-publishing marketplace by creating relationships with scholarly publishers to distribute cutting-edge research to libraries and other institutions more quickly and at a significantly lower cost.

The Journal of Choice—and Impact—in Combinatorial Chemistry

The ACS has broadened its commitment to excellence in publishing with the Journal of Combinatorial Chemistry. In only its second year of publication in 2000, JCC placed in the Top Ten in impact factor in Chemistry*, #2 in Medicinal Chemistry*, and #1 in Applied Chemistry*. JCC has become THE journal where combinatorial chemists look first to publish their research in high-throughput synthesis of substances. This high-quality, peer-reviewed publication reports innovative work in the broad field of combinatorial chemistry.

That's not all....

These newest journals in the ACS family of publications continue the quality and excellence that is the hallmark of the American Chemical Society.
