Adventures in Librarianship — Heroes

by Ned Kraft (Ralph J. Bunche Library, U.S. Department of State) <kraftno@state.gov>

Several readers have asked about the composition and purpose of the “Library Justice and Universal Protection Task Force.” From their Website we’ve learned that they prefer the shortened moniker “The Protectors,” and their mission statement is “the guarantee of universal library services, the return of lost or stolen books, and the general defense of the planet against invaders of any sort.” Though not otherwise well known, one publisher, Marvel, has covered “The Protectors” extensively and the following biographical sketches were gleaned from Marvel publications.

Dr. Hans Schneider received his MLS degree from Universitat Stuttgart in 1981, and his PhD in Hazardous Chemical Management from the Max Planck Institute in 1996. After a brief illness in 2002, Dr. Schneider began disintegrating distant objects using a beam of dark light projecting from his right index finger. Making the most of that ability, Dr. Schneider managed to prevent the allusive, and vaguely-Soviet, Ivan Slaughter from subjugating all humanity from his island compound in the South Atlantic. Dr. Schneider also retrieved several long-overdue books from the compound. Though his talents are many, an aversion to creamed corn turns the otherwise good-natured doctor taciturn and seemingly unable to lift his finger.

Miss Molly May was raised an only child on a Minnesota farm, just a stone’s throw from the Massahopac Nuclear Power Plant. While working on her MLS at the University of Illinois, Miss May discovered she could see through walls and other sorts of visual obstacles. She famously used that ability, working in consort with the aforementioned Dr. Schneider, to disable several alien spacecraft during a short-lived invasion attempt in the summer of 2004. Since then, Miss May has been serving as ALA’s Vice-Chair for Book Fines and reading to children at the Evansburg County Library. Her unique visual abilities are rendered useless by the presence of her mother, Anna Belle May, who is outspoken in her belief that Molly should be married and raising children.

Vance Clarkson, after a short stint with the Defense Intelligence Agency, became Head of Technical Services for the Buddy Hackett Memorial Library, Constant College, in 1997. Mr. Clarkson later used his uncanny mind-reading ability to assist counter-intelligence efforts in Afghanistan, and to press for greater library funding in his home state of Ohio. For his efforts, Clarkson was given ALA’s prestigious Hugo Boss Award in 2003. It should be noted that his mind-reading ability fails him when his subject is watching television. Vance Clarkson currently serves as Secretary for the Library Justice and Universal Protection Task Force, a rotating chair.

Henrietta Means learned at an early age, and through many hours searching through her public library, how to focus her pubescent anger and frustration toward impressive acts of physical strength. While working toward her Master of Information Studies degree at State University, Ms Means did her internship in Costa Rica battling a gigantic half-man half-serpent creature that had risen from the sea. After a few years at the Library of Congress, she was hired by the Institute of Museum and Library Services where she reviews grant requests. Though she still enjoys saving the world from supernatural creatures, Ms Means spends much of her time reading and making small decoupage lapel pins as gifts for her friends. And every urge toward focusing her incredible strength is sapped when faced with a really good Jimmy Stewart movie. 🍷
