

Conference Program

The 28th IATUL annual conference: Global Access to Science - Scientific Publishing for the Future

Sunday, June 10th
18:00 -20:00	Registration and Welcome reception at KTH Library Guided tours at KTH Campus and/or KTH Library Building Music, Gunnar Julin , Director Musices, KTH Refreshments Kindly sponsored by ExLibris and KTH

Monday, June 11th "Public Access"
08:00	Registration at KTH Library
09:00	Welcome and Official Opening (Room F2) Anders Eriksson , Acting President of KTH, The Royal Institute of Technology Dan Brändström , Investigator of Swedish research funding system Gunnar Sahlin , National Librarian, National Library of Sweden Maria Heijne , President of IATUL
09:30	Keynote speakers (Room F2) Moderator: Gunnar Lager
	Tom Cochrane , Deputy Vice-Chancellor Queensland University of Technology, Brisbane, Australia Global access to science – meeting the revolution
	Rüdiger Voss , Dr. Physics Dep, CERN, Geneva, Switzerland Open Access Publishing in Particle Physics
10:30	Coffee break
11:00	Keynote speakers (Room F2) Moderator: Gunnar Lager
	Jens Vigen , Library Director CERN, Geneva, Switzerland Open Access and repositories : beyond green and gold
	Erik Sandewall , Visiting professor Scientific Information and Learning, KTH, Stockholm, Sweden From full text storage to full contents representation: Information science between library science and informatics
	Håkan Carlsson , Dr Lund University, Sweden Open Access - Reaching the Masses
12:30	Lunch. Kindly sponsored by EBSCO
14:00	Parallel sessions 1 and 2 (Room F2 and F3)
	Session 1 Moderator: Arja-Riitta Haarala
	Bo-Christer Björk Hanken, Svenska handelshögskolan, Helsinki, Finland A model of scientific communication of a global distributed information system

	Jan Brase German National Library of Science and Technology, Hannover, Germany A system for easy access to scientific information using DOIs
	Session 2, Moderator: Terje Höiseth
	Wayne Johnston University of Guelph, Guelph, Canada The library as an agent for transforming scholarly communications Marianne Josserand Haska BioMed Central, London, UK How open access journals and repositories facilitate public access to publicly funded research
15:00	Coffee break
15:30	Parallel sessions 3 and 4 (Room F2 and F3)
	Session 3, Moderator: Arja-Riitta Haarala
	Yuko Murakami National Institute of Informatics (NII), Chiyoda-Ku, Tokyo, Japan The interim evaluation method of the national project for institutional repositories in Japan Eric Kansa Alexandria Archive Inst, Univ of Santa Clara, Berkeley, CA, USA An open context for small-scale field science data
	Session 4, Moderator: Terje Höiseth
	Manik Mandal National Institute of Technology, Durgapur, India Global access to science information: The changing dynamics of access and practices in India Pablo Ortellado Public Policy – University of Sao Paulo, Open Access Brasil, Sao Paulo, Brazil The Brazilian model for free access to scientific publications
16:30	End of day program
17:45	Harbour cruise from Nybroviken to Stockholm City Hall. Kindly sponsored by Svensk Biblioteksörening and PrioInfo
19:00	Reception at Stockholm City Hall with buffet. Kindly invited by the City of Stockholm

Tuesday, June 12th, "New tools and services; Metrics"

09:00	Parallel sessions 5 and 6 (Room F2 and F3)
	Session 5, Moderator: Judith Palmer
	Ralph Schroeder Oxford Internet Institute, Oxford, UK e-Research infrastructures and scientific communication

	Richard Akerman NRC CISTI, Ottawa, Canada Library service-oriented architecture to enhance access to science Peter Morgan University of Cambridge/Imperial College London, Cambridge CB3 9DR, UK Facilitating the disposal of experimental chemistry data in institutional repositories: Project SPECTRa
	Session 6, Moderator: Reiner Kallenborn
	James L. Mullins Purdue University Library, West Lafayette, Indiana, USA Enabling international access to data sets: the distributed data curation center (D2C2) David Lawrence Linköping University Electronic Press, Linköping, Sweden Support service for publication of open access journals Helle Lauridsen CSA, Oxford, UK How researchers use the electronic library?
10:30	Morning tea. Kindly sponsored by RMIT.
11:00	Keynote speakers (Room F2) Moderator: Paul Sheehan
	John Wilbanks, Executive director Science Commons/MIT CSAIL, Cambridge, MA, USA New metaphors in scientific communication: Libraries and the commons
	Lars Juhl Jensen, Ph.D. EMBL-Heidelberg, Heidelberg, Germany Biomedical literature mining (and why we really need Open Access)
12:00	Poster session (in library foyer)
13:00	Lunch. Kindly sponsored by CAS
14:00	General Assembly (Room F2)
15:00	Coffee break
15:30	Session 7 (Room F2) Moderator: Lars Björnshauge
	Katarina Larsen Dep of Infrastructure, KTH, Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm, Sweden Interactive activities of researchers captured in research impact assessment Folke Snickars KTH, Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm, Sweden International research assessment revisited - A comparison between the research performance of KTH and selected UK universities
16:30	Keynote speaker (Room F2) Moderator: Lars Björnshauge
	Jonathan Adams, Director Evidence Ltd, Leeds, UK The new geography of science
17:30	End of day program
18:15	Reception at Kungl. Biblioteket, the National Library of Sweden Guided tour of the library, and current exhibition on Astrid Lindgren

	Refreshments. Kindly invited by National Library of Sweden.
--	---

Wednesday, June 13th "Study tour to Uppsala"

09:00	Buses from KTH to Uppsala (70 km north of Stockholm)
10:30	Coffee
11:00	Guided tours to the Uppsala University, Gustavianum and the Cathedral
13:00	Lunch. Kindly sponsored by DMS Participants in the ETD 2007 workshop at Uppsala, please see below!
14:30	Library visits at Uppsala University Carolina Rediviva (main library) Evolutionary Biology Centre. Lecture by Professor Pauli Snoeijs: International publication of Baltic Sea science 2002-2005 and its connection to research funding (bibliometric study to be presented at a conference March 2007) Ångström Laboratory. Lecture by Dr Göran Rämme: Soap bubbles – a bridge between art and science
16:00	Bus to Linnaeus´ Hammarby. Guided tour. Refreshments
18:00	Bus to Sigtuna
19:00	Return to Stockholm by boat, Waxholm III, on Lake Mälaren Dinner is served on board. Kindly sponsored by IHS, IEEE, Dawson, CSA, Blackwell, Sage, RMIT.
23:00	Arrival at Stockholm, Nybrokajen

On Wednesday 13th at 13.00 a 2-3 hours workshop on "Introducing GUIDE: Guiding Universities in Doctoral Theses in Europe" is open for a limited number of interested IATUL participants. For this special event no registration at the ETD web-site is necessary.

Thursday, June 14th "Economics; Bridging the gap"

09:00	Keynote speaker (Room F2) Moderator: Alice Trussell Alice Keller , Head of Collection Management Oxford University Library, Oxford, UK The disincentive of E-only
09:30	Session 8 (Room F2) Moderator: Sohair Wastawy Joris van Rossum Scirus, Amsterdam, The Netherlands Science-specific Search: Bridging the gap in dissemination of and access to information Paul Peters Hindawi Corporation, Cairo, Egypt Beyond access

	Lars Björnshauge Lund University, Sweden Open access journals and the developing world - experiences from operating the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ)
10:30	Coffee break
11:00	Pro et Contra (Room F2) Panel discussion and questions Nick Fowler , Director of Strategy, Elsevier Arne Johansson , Professor, Vetenskapsrådet Caroline Sutton , Co-Found og Publisher, Andrew Wray , Group Publisher, IOP Publishing, Bristol, UK
12:30	Lunch. Kindly sponsored by Springer
14:00	Parallel sessions 9 and 10 (Room F2 and F3)
	Session 9, Moderator:
	Tony McSéan Elsevier, London, UK Not just quality information: HINARI drives desirable change in teaching & research Emily Gillingham Blackwell Publishing – HINARI/AGORA/OARE, Oxford, UK Developing world access to peer-reviewed research – OA in action
	Session 10, Moderator: Marianne Nordlander
	Anisur Rahman Library and Information Division, Northern University Bangladesh, Dhaka, Bangladesh Access to global information – a case of digital divide in Bangladesh Hannie Sander Library and Information Centres, University of Johannesburg, South Africa Challenging libraries in the alternative dissemination of African scholarly communication
15:00	Coffee break
15:30	Keynote speaker (Room F2) Moderator: Maria Heijne
	Rune Nilsen , Professor University of Bergen, Bergen, Norway Research knowledge in a global perspective, a public good or part of a knowledge apartheid
16:00	Closing session (Room F2)
	Maria Heijne , President of IATUL
17:00	End of conference
19:00	Conference dinner at the Vasa Museum Kindly sponsored by Elsevier, BioMed, Linda Hall, Ovid, Nature